

Riverside Walk ●●●●

A short walk following the river from the Nungate Bridge up to Long Cram. Either return back through the town or retrace your steps downstream. Mostly level, along tarmac and gravel paths. 1700 metres each way. Pop into St Mary's Pleasance garden if you have time. www.haddingtongarden.com

River Tyne Path ●●●●

Walk past the cemetery, cross the Tyne and turn right. Follow the path downstream past the cascade and on to Abbey Bridge. There are various options at this point to return to Haddington. About 3 kilometres there and back. Or, you can walk to East Linton along the River Tyne Path, which is another 7.5 kilometres along the river.

Haddington - Longniddry Railway Walk ●●●●

Follow the signs on the West Road to the Railway Walk. This is a smooth and reasonably level path that takes you cross country to Longniddry. Around 7 kilometres each way.

Abbey Bridge

Garleton Path ●●●●

This path climbs up the hill through woodland to reveal great views. Take care negotiating the roundabouts under the A1. It is around 1 kilometre to where the path emerges back onto the road. Choices here are to cross the road and follow the right of way towards Blackmains Toll, or to continue up to the track that runs along the Garleton Ridge and into Athelstaneford. Amazing views from the ridge, but beware of the cattle in the field.

Amisfield Loop ●●●●

Following the main drive of the golf course, past the club house and on to Amisfield Walled Garden. Return along the path through the woods. A short section of the path is next to the road. Mixed surfaces of tarmac and gravel. 3 kilometres. Amisfield Walled garden is open to the public. See www.amisfield.org.uk for opening times.

Stevenson Bridge and Beyond ●●●●

Cross the white bridge from the Riverside Walk and follow the path along the sides of the fields past the well where Robert Burns' mum collected water. The path goes for almost 2 kilometres to the corner of the road to Samuelston. Here you have a choice of continuing along the road to the concrete bridge back over the Tyne and back to Haddington, or follow the road-side path for another 1.75 kilometres to Bolton. From Bolton you can walk to Gifford!

Tyne riverside walk

Garleton path

Amisfield Walled Garden

Useful Information

This leaflet highlights some paths around Haddington and is intended to encourage you to explore the area. The highlighted paths are all on rights of way or core paths. There are many other paths in the area that connect into these routes, which can be used to make walks of various lengths.

Haddington

20 miles from Edinburgh, Haddington is a beautiful market town, rich in history and with many attractions. Whether you're a visitor or a local, we'd be delighted if you'd like to find out more about our town. www.haddington.org.uk

Scottish Outdoor Access Code Know the code before you go ...

Enjoy Scotland's outdoors – responsibly! Everyone has the right to be on most land and inland water providing they act responsibly. Your access rights and responsibilities are explained fully in the Scottish Outdoor Access Code. Whether you're in the outdoors or managing the outdoors, they key things are to:

- Take responsibility for your own actions;
- Respect the interests of other people;
- Care for the environment.

Find out more by visiting www.outdooraccess-scotland.com or phoning your local Scottish Natural Heritage Office.

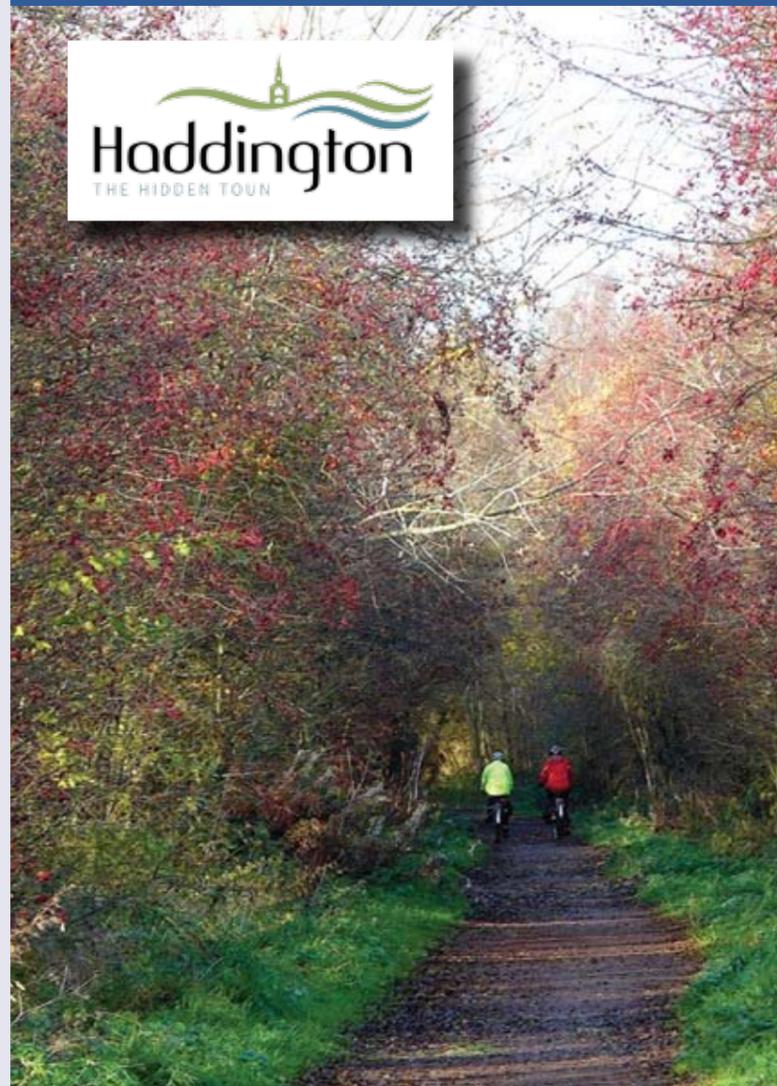

Public Transport
Details of public transport in the area are available from Traveline on 0871 200 22 33 www.travelinescotland.com

Information about other walks in East Lothian can be found at www.visiteastlothian.org/activities/walking

Paths around Haddington

Paths around Haddington

- ● ● Promoted paths (various colours)
- Other paths and tracks
- Roads

Red admiral

Kingfisher

Roe deer

Hare

Dog walkers, please keep your dog under close control, ensure you clear up after your dog and dispose of dog waste responsibly.

